

HOSPITALITY SUITE OPEN THURSDAY, JULY 15TH ONLY

In order to insure that our conference staff has ample opportunity to participate in the scheduled Friday evening events, the hospitality suite will be open from 8:00 PM until 1:00 AM on Thursday, July 15th ONLY.

Thank you.

ONLY HERE FOR A SINGLE WORKSHOP?
WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN US FOR THE AWARDS DINNER

Our Awards Dinner will be held on Friday, July 16th from 12:00 PM until 2:00 PM at the Hyatt Regency Hotel, Two Fountain Plaza, Buffalo, NY. Themed "The Police are the People... the People are The Police", the Keynote Speaker will be the Hon. William C. Clifton, Associate Justice for the Rhode Island District Court. Providing a welcoming opportunity to meet the various members of our Board of Directors, as well as law enforcement officers and community members, tickets are $65.00 per person (1 ticket is provided to all full conference registrants).

We look forward to the pleasure of your company as we celebrate the positive connections between the community and their law enforcement guardians.

WE WOULD LIKE TO STAY IN TOUCH WITH YOU

In order to help us make our next training session a success we would like to be able to stay in touch with you. Please be kind and leave us your business card with email address at the registration desk upon leaving any workshop that you attend.

Thank you.

LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS

NABLEO's Fall Education and Training Conference is designed to offer both active duty and retired professional law enforcement, corrections, and investigative personnel the latest substantive information and professional skills they need to creatively and effectively meet the needs of low income and communities of color in which they serve, and provide opportunities to meet and exchange ideas with colleagues from across the country

UNLESS OTHERWISE NOTED, ALL SESSIONS WILL BE HELD AT THE HYATT REGENCY HOTEL

Thursday, July 15th 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM

PREPARING YOURSELF FOR PROMOTION AND LEADERSHIP

Lieut. David Daniels III, Bridgeport, CT Police Department

Officers seeking promotional advancement must be properly prepared for the testing and assessment process and understand the ethical, legal and professional standards of their interactions with those they will ultimately command and supervise. Will discuss relevant concepts of management and leadership appropriate to the role responsibilities of first line supervisors in a modern criminal justice agency

Thursday., July 15th 9:00 AM—12:00 PM

PUBLIC SAFETY ISSUES

Thursday, July 15th 1:00PM to 2:30 PM

SECURING YOUR FUTURE—RETIREMENT PLANNING

With ever increasing emphasis by local and state governments to dramatically change pension plans being offered to their employees, including law enforcement officers, it is both necessary and needful that police officers begin the process of retirement planning at a much earlier point in their careers. This program will provide a basic understanding of various standardized retirement programs, financial management systems, business models, and other information designed to assist officers to better transition from the work environment to retirement.

Thursday, July 15th 2:30PM to 4:00 PM

The Power of Simple Talk for Not So Simple Problems

The American Heart Association will provide a unique and interactive opportunity assuring educational empowerment and a specialized action plan for each attendee. Our Simple Talk topics clarify how to reduce the key risk factors for heart disease and stroke and inspire people to live a healthier and longer life.

Friday, July 16th 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM

BASIC GRANT WRITING AND MANAGEMENT

Darren Strickland

In today's economy, more and more organizations are required to secure their funding through the grants application process, yet many are totally unaware of what is required. This session explains the basics of grant preparation, principal foundation and government requirements that must be met and provides a look at where grants may be found.

Friday., July 16th 1:00 PM to 2:30 PM

PREVENTING POLICE MISCONDUCT

Chief Daryl K. Roberts, Hartford, CT Police Department

This program looks at the various components necessary to prevent misconduct and abuse of authority—community interaction, agency policy development, internal affairs, officer ethics and integrity, disciplinary spectrums. All are critical components in providing professional services in an ethical manner.

Friday, July 16th 2:30 PM to 4:00 PM

LAW ENFORCEMENT AND VETERANS

Patrick Welch, Director, Erie County Veteran's Service Agency

This session aims to educate law enforcement on the unique characteristics afflicting many of our returning veterans such as TBI and PTSD. Law enforcement officers will have a better knowledge of PTSD and its effects on veterans and themselves. This knowledge will assist law enforcement when dealing with the veteran population and help with defusing veteran related domestic violence and lower rates of suicide among both law enforcement and veterans.
